

Literary Analysis Project
Out Town
English 122 American Literature
Mr. Scirocco

This assignment will take you across disciplines and enrich your understanding of the text.

For your Act, you are responsible for the Super Seven

- 1. Select a power line, a line that speaks volumes. Explain why you chose this line.

- 2. Select a key scene that you will bring to life with an inspired reading (Costumes, props, acting) You may act out in class or create a film outside of class. Explain the significance of this scene.

- 3. Find an essay that connects in some way to the conflict, character, motif, or theme found in your Act. Then explain the connection. Think history or current events.

- 4. Find a classical poem that connects to the conflict, character, motif, or theme of the Act. Then develop an argument that will clarify this connection.

- 5. Select or create music that reflects what the characters are doing, saying, or feeling. Why did you choose this particular piece?

- 6. Find or create a work of art (painting, sculpture, ceiling tile) that captures the emotion and conflict found in the Act.

- 7. Finally, your provocative question. This is a question you will ask the class; it will stimulate class discussion.