COACHES

Women's Coach: Sara Geiger

Coach Geiger is an Atlanta native, playing high school soccer at Parkview High School. There she one a state championship and was named a high school All-American. She continued her soccer career at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. Playing Division I soccer prepared her for coaching career. She came to St. Pius as a new coach and new teacher. In her first year of coaching at St. Pius in 2008, coach Sara Geiger, lead the Lady Lions to at a state championship game. The Lady Lions ended the season with a 20 - 2 record. During her second year, 2009, here at Pius, Coach Geiger lead the team to her first AAA State Championship as a coach. The Lady Lions went 22 - 0, scored 141 goals, allowed only 6 goals, and were ranked number one in the Nation for 2009 season by the NSCAA declaring the team National Champions. Her victories continued into her third year of coaching were she lead the team to the 2010 AAA Region Title and to a 2010 AAA State Championship Title. Coach Geiger is proud of her ladies success and only hopes to continue the success in her years to come.

Men's Coach: David O'Shea

David O'Shea is the Varsity Boy's Soccer Head Coach. Coach O'Shea has experience playing at both high school and amateur club level in England. He also played at college level for the University of Central Lancashire. After spending time coaching in several soccer programs and clinics in England he moved to United States and began coaching U-12s. Coach O'Shea coached for three years at both club and high school level in the Augusta area and subsequently moved to Atlanta to take a teaching/coaching position at SPX. Coach O'Shea started with the SPX JV program and led them to an undefeated season. The following year he stepped up to be assistant to varsity head coach Killebrew Bailey. In his first year as assistant coach he helped guide them to a state championship. In his second season he helped to lead the team to a final four finish. After Coach Bailey stepped down, Coach O'Shea replaced him as head coach.
